DAGGUBATI RAMANAIDU

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) the various central taxes collected during the last financial year 2000-2001. State-wise/ zone-wise;

(b) the percentage of growth over the previous year;

(c) whether still a large number of owners of private enterprises are evading Income Tax; and

(d) if so, the measures proposed to be taken by Income Tax department to bring into income tax net those tax evaders?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (GINGEE N. RAMACHANDRAN)

(a) The details of Chief Commissioner region-wise/ zone-wise collection during 2000-2001 (upto 28thFebruary) of corporation tax and income tax, and central excise and customs duty, are given in Annexure I & II respectively.

(b) The total collection of direct and indirect taxes upto 28th February, 2001, have registered a growth of 11.67% over the collection during the corresponding period in the previous year.

(c) Certain assessees, including the owner of private enterprises, have been found to be evading Income tax.

(d) Government has been taking necessary legislative, fiscal and administrative measures from time to time to bring the tax evaders into the income tax net. Rates of taxation as well as procedures have been progressively rationalised. Income Tax Act, 1961 contains a number of provisions for bringing tax evaders into the tax net. These include, inter-alia, compulsory filing of returns by persons who satisfy any one of the six specified economic criteria, compulsory quoting of the PAN in prescribed transactions, compulsory maintenance and audit of account in specified cases, pre-emptive purchase of properties, surveys and searches, penalties and prosecutions for punishing tax evaders, and investigation in cases selected for scrutiny.
